TECHNICAL VISITS

North Castellón 8:00 am - 20:00 pmPrice 50€

The visit will include the ruins under restoration of the castle of Petrés, official residence of Marshal Suchet during the Napoleonic invasion, built with rammed earth walls and limecrete and tile vaults; the ruins under restoration of the castle of La Vilavella; the pantheon of the Soriano-Manzanet family in Vila-Real, recently built with vaults; the Garden of Memory in Vinaroz, which evokes a demolished monastery with its own rubble and archaeological finds; and the Torre de Cáliz, a medieval tower with a long history of uses and transformations that became the town's discotheque, whose restoration has opted to respect much of its stratification and historical phases. Only the Castle of La Vilavella foresees a slightly uphill rural path.

Means of transport Bus.Meeting point Access O of the UPV complex.
Bus and snacks included in the price.Ademuz-Utiel 8:00 am - 20:00 pmPrice 50€

The Rincón de Ademuz is a region of the Valencian Community hidden in a valley that has largely preserved the traditional character of its vernacular architecture built with gypsum pillars, gypsum-poured jack arched floors, walls of stone slabs bonded with gypsum and tiled roofs. You will visit the village of Sesga with several buildings (300 years old house, bread oven, school, barbershop, tile kiln, wash house, trough, gypsum kiln, etc.), whose restoration in some cases received the 1st European Union Award for Cultural Heritage/Europa Nostra. On the way back we will stop at Utiel, a small town famous for the production of wine, to visit its underground cellars.

Means of transport Bus.Meeting point Access O of the UPV complex.
Bus and snacks included in the price.

TECHNICAL VISITS

Valencia Historic Center 9:00 - 13:00Price 50€

The visit will focus on getting to know on foot some of the constructive characters of the Valencian historical heritage and will be approached from multiple points of view, especially focused on documenting residential architecture, less known and protected than other emblematic monumental urban buildings. Throughout the tour, some of the main relationships between architecture and historical fabric will be defined, and those interested will be guided to decipher some of the architectural and constructive characteristics of interesting cases visible today in the old town, assessing their construction, compositional features and transformation / stratification over time.

Means of transport
WalkingMeeting point
A. Torres de Serranos

*Snacks included in the price

Directions on Google Maps*Cabanyal neighborhood 9:00 - 13:00Price 50€

The tour will explore on foot this neighborhood that became internationally famous a few years ago for having fought for two decades against the Valencia City Council that wanted to dismantle it to open an access avenue to the sea, and for having won the battle for its preservation. We will visit this maritime district, chosen by The Guardian as one of the 10 coolest neighborhoods in Europe, with its interesting fabric of modernist houses, its extraordinary living catalog of polychrome tiles and many other decorative details. The bioclimatic character of its housing and urban layout, its relationship to the sea, the fish markets, etc. will be examined. The visit will include a stop at a typical place to taste the famous Valencian esmorçaret.
